

Richard Goldenberg
125 Carriage Lane
Plainview, New York 11803
Cell:516-492-4855
Email:richard.goldenberg@yahoo.com

Selected Professional Accomplishments:

Successfully completed two Initial Public Offerings which rose approximately:

- $90 million for EVCI Career Colleges Holding Corp
- $70 million for Celadon Group

I have also been involved in negotiations with investment bankers for private placements which raised capital via direct equity or preferred stock with EVCI and Celadon Group.

Experience:

July 2015-Present	American Collegiate Acquisitions, Inc. Chief Financial Officer and Board Member Responsible for all financial functions.
Feb 2010-Mar 2015	Technical Career Institute/Owned by EVCI Career Colleges Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Consultant Responsible for all financial functions
Mar 1997-Feb 2010	EVCI Career Colleges Holding Corp. CFO and Board Member (Sept 97-May 2007) Successful Initial 12M Public Offering. Various Private Placements.
Oct 1996- Mar 1997	RDX Acquisition Company, Nashua, New Hampshire CFO and Secretary Responsible for all financial activities.
1986 – Sept 96	Celadon Group, Inc. Kearny, New Jersey Vice President Treasurer and Secretary Successful Initial Public Offering and secondary offering. Responsible for financial operations of $250 million public company.
1983-1986	Concord Nopal, Miami, Florida Chief Financial Officer Responsible for all financial activities.
1981-1983	Seapac Treasurer Responsible for cash management, financial reporting, pension portfolio, insurance coverage and the following departments: Accounts Receivable/Payable, Credit, Budgeting and Payroll. Freight revenue was $90 million for this division. Managed Staff of 24.
1971 – 1981	Seatrain Shipbuilding, Brooklyn, New York Controller Responsible for financial reporting, cost accounting, budgeting & payroll.

Education: Bachelor of Business Administration, Baruch College